

Quality Policy Statement

Quality Policy

Axion aims to supply high quality recycled plastic and metal products that fully meet our customers' needs and expectations, using feedstocks derived primarily from post consumer waste streams.

We organise our activities not only to meet the direct requirements of our customers and other interested parties, but to also ensure on time, in full delivery of our products and services, whilst providing excellent value and achieving growth and profitability for the company.

Our management team is committed to developing a culture of quality and continuous and never-ending improvement throughout the organisation to help achieve the company's customer satisfaction objective.

The organisation actively promotes and communicates the fact that everyone is responsible for quality and for maintaining high standards.

The Axion board is responsible for implementing the policy. This will be achieved by:

- Providing all customers with the highest standards of product and service quality which fully satisfy their requirements and are fit for purpose.
- Operating and managing the business systems in compliance with the requirements of ISO 9001:2015 as well as all other applicable statutory, regulatory and industry requirements.
- Setting and reviewing measurable quality objectives and ensuring those objectives are met.
- Providing the necessary resources and insuring responsibilities and authorities are determined and communicated throughout the organisation.
- Reviewing the effectiveness of the quality management system and assessing opportunities for its continual improvement.
- Enhancing and developing the skills of all employees through effective skills reviews and ongoing training.
- Promoting and developing a culture of continual improvement and the philosophy for getting things 'right first time'.
- Rigorously controlling the production and supply of all products in line with known customer requirements.
- Promoting and communicating the quality management system throughout the organisation and to all interested parties.
- Ensuring the ongoing effectiveness through internal measurement, auditing, review and appropriate action.
